

And breathe ... it finally feels like spring is here! After what's seemed like a long, wet winter, daffodils are cheerfully popping up, cliff-tops flaunting bright yellow gorse and seabirds returning to nest on cliffs and islands. It's time to get outdoors and taste that fresh, salty sea air!

With Mother's Day round the corner on March 10th, treat someone special to a last-minute seaside break. For unforgettable views, strike out on the Coast Path in the North York Moors National Park, take a steam ride on the North York Moors Railway or pedal around Dalby Forest's cycling trails.

Head to White Cliffs Country to sample foodie treats at the Saturday markets in Deal and Dover, enjoy freshly baked breads, local Kent fruit and veg, chutneys and local wines, pick up an antique, cut flowers or plants, then visit Deal or Dover castles and take a stroll beside the sea – what better way to spend a celebratory day out!

Whether a coastal village in Cumbria or cool-cafe brunch in Christchurch, plan your adventure on England's Coast.

If you can't wait, enter our competition to win a glamping stay complete with hot tub and fabulous views over the Lincolnshire countryside.

North York Moors National Park

Why not embrace spring strolling the coast path in the North York Moors National Park? If you're a seasoned rambler, the 11-mile walk from Ravenscar to Robin Hood's Bay traverses some of the Moor's most unforgettable landscapes. For a shorter route, amble along the cliff top at Whitby Abbey and watch the boats arriving at Whitby Harbour before heading down for fish and chips!
