

May is National Walking Month and with another bank holiday coming up, there's every reason to get outdoors and where better to stretch the legs than by the sea! With ever more miles of the King Charles III England Coast Path (KCIIIIECP) opening up, there's sure to be a stunning part of the trail just waiting to be explored near you!

Check out our latest blog for inspiration. Dotted with heritage landmarks, you'll encounter historic towns and iconic seascapes on the White Cliffs Coast Path and Saxon Way, Puffins, Gannets and Kittiwakes on each step at East Yorkshire's Flamborough Head or a glass of the local fizz after a hike on the South Downs in West Sussex.

And to be in with a chance of a stay at The Royal Maritime Hotel in the very heart of Portsmouth's historic quarter, don't forget to enter our competition. With the awesome Mary Rose ship, Spinnaker Tower and amazing shopping, you'll be buzzing in this Waterfront City. Good luck!

Ignite your creative spark!

With its galleries and inspiring sunsets, the Isle of Thanet is a magnet for artists. Plan a visit this half term for creative workshops, culinary experiences and art trails and don't forget to drop into one of the cool ice-cream parlours.

Then walk a section of the Viking Coastal Trail, part of the newly opened KCIIECP, it takes in Margate, Ramsgate and Broadstairs as well as inland pretty villages.

Peace and quiet or non-stop fun, it's all on the Yorkshire Coast!

From Staithes in the north to Bridlington in the south, the Yorkshire Coast brims with history. Thanks to the glut of fossils on its beaches and clifftops, it's perfect for a family day out. Or stay a little longer at Scarborough, with its castle, beaches and fizzing entertainment, there's endless fun.

For a quieter escape, look no further than Filey's golden sands. Walk the rocky Filey Brigg peninsula to spot sealife or visit Filey Dams Nature Reserve, a quiet gem packed with migratory birds.

Cool coastal chic in West Sussex

If you're looking for your first dip of the season, you'll find plenty of like-minded dippers at Bognor Regis, Littlehampton or Worthing, and for a totally immersive experience make the most of Worthing's beachside sauna.

It's now easier than ever to visit the West Sussex coastline thanks to new signage and boardwalks installed for the KCIIIECP and as there are no stiles, almost all of it is easily accessible. With its vineyards and superb seafront al fresco dining, outdoor life couldn't be better!
