

With spring officially here and Easter around the corner, the upcoming long, lazy weekend gives scores of reasons to be cheerful!

From an Easter Firework Eggstravaganza in Sandown on the Isle of Wight, an Easter Food Festival in Broadstairs Kent to an Easter Adventure Quest at Scarborough Castle, you'll be in for a cracking time wherever you are on the coast.

Strolls, swims and saunas in White Cliffs Country

There's plenty happening at White Cliffs Country. Wear the kids out hunting for clues and searching for eggs at Dover or Walmer Castles, have the year's first open water swim and a sauna by the sea in Dover or walk part of the Folkestone to Ramsgate section of the King Charles III England Coast Path – love your life outdoors!

Spring into action on the South Coast

Head to Europe's largest natural harbour in Poole and hop across to Brownsea Island, book ahead so kids can follow an interactive trail to discover birds and wildlife with a chocolate egg at the end, 23 March to 13 April. Or visit Highcliffe Castle and head to the State Dining Room for craft fun. Amble Bournemouth's gardens, cycle along the prom or get out on the water.

New immersive experiences afloat with City Cruises Poole

Searching for a new experience? Take a Jurassic Adventurer! You'll have unlimited travel for the day, sweep along the coast on a Breezer bus to Poole, jump on board a City Cruises boat up to Swanage then steam your way on the Swanage Railway to fairytale Corfe Castle. Indulge in a cream tea or something stronger before returning by bus to Poole or Bournemouth. Totally Instagrammable! Or book a bird-watching cruise for May, peak puffin-nesting season, sail with a Park Ranger on board for expert sightings.

Win a stay at The Huts, Spitfire Barn in Kent!

This month we've teamed up with White Cliffs Country on the lovely Kent coast to offer you a two-night stay at your choice of one of three properties at Spitfire Barn, in rural West Hougham village. Surrounded by far-reaching views of open countryside, choose from one of two delightful Shepherd's Huts with your own hot tub, sauna and private patio or opt for a chalet-style wooden cabin with accommodation for four and its own hot tub.

Boasting a beautiful mix of contemporary design and rustic charm, this is the perfect stay for a peaceful escape. You'll be close to the pretty village of Capel-le-Ferne and the White Cliffs themselves in Dover. Visit the town's castle and museum or take a Dover Sea Safari enjoying this impressive coastline from the ocean and spotting seals splashing about. Enter now!

T&Cs: The two-night stay must be taken from Monday to Thursday, is subject to availability and once booked alterations cannot be made, valid for 6 months after the prize draw.
